

Why Sunco?

YOU DESERVE MORE FROM YOUR BUSINESS TELECOM PROVIDER. YOU DESERVE A PARTNER THAT'S AS INVESTED IN YOUR BUSINESS AS YOU ARE. SUNCO IS THAT PARTNER.

For more than 20 years business customers throughout Alberta, Western Canada and across the country have turned to Sunco for the premier service and support, helping them adopt the secure, flexible, scalable and personalized services they need to succeed.

Our reputation for reliable and consultative service is unmatched. Our experience with both the fundamental and cutting-edge telecommunication services allows us to work with you to determine the best solutions to support your success. Our working relationships with all major telecom providers mean we can customize a solution designed specific to your needs, at a price point that fits your budget.

So... Why Sunco?

NOT JUST A VENDOR. AN EXTENSION OF YOUR TEAM.

From day one we take the time to learn your business, understand your current and future needs, and design the right solution to support your business.

From auditing your current telecom bill and services to help you find areas of cost savings and performance improvement, to implementing customized solutions that can scale as you grow, we pride ourselves on bringing employee-level commitment to every client relationship.

CONSULTATION. NOT QUOTAS.

As an independent business telecom solutions provider, we are not beholden to any one service or product line. We work with you to find the right set of solutions to support your business, period.

We are not concerned with sales quotas or manufacturer exclusivities. We are and always will be 100% focused on helping you identify and adopt the right solutions to support your business needs.

RELIABILITY. SECURITY. SERVICE.

We know that uptime is essential, and security is a top priority. We offer a range of solutions designed to help you operate at maximum capacity without the heavy lifting, allowing you to focus on your number one priority – your business.

A TEAM THAT'S IN IT FOR YOU - FOR THE LONG HAUL.

We pride ourselves on being an employer of choice for the most skilled telecom professionals in the business, and our track record backs it up. We boast an exceptionally low employee turnover rate, meaning your Sunco team today will be there when you need them tomorrow, next month AND years from now.

SO... WHY SUNCO?

We're dedicated to delivering the business telecom experience you deserve, and invested in your success from day one.
